CALL FOR ENTRIES

The editors of ARCHITECTURAL RECORD announce the 2013 Record Houses awards program. Entry is open to any architect registered in the U.S. or abroad. Of particular interest are projects that incorporate innovation in program, building technology, materials, and form. Projects must be built and inhabited. They may be new construction or renovated and adaptive reuse projects. Entries must be approved by client for publication and if selected, be available for a visit by a writer.

SUBMISSION CONFIGURATIONS

All submissions should be electronic in one of the following configurations and accompanied by an official entry form that is available by visiting architecturalrecord.com/call4entries

- A CD, DVD, or USB drive containing the writable PDF "Call for Entries" form must be completely filled out; and accompanied by a good-quality, low-resolution project PDF that provides at least 10 full-page images, including comprehensive exteriors and furnished interiors of living and dining spaces and bedrooms, plus plans, drawings, elevations, and explanatory text.
- Also provide at least 10 good-quality 8-by-10-inch (screen-resolution) 72 dpi images (as described above), plus plans, drawings, and elevations as JPEG files; and explanatory text as a Microsoft® Word document.
- Please include one printout of the "Call for Entries" form with the disc. Be sure also to include the project's date of completion. Houses should be no more than two years old. Do not send binders or hard copies of the project presentations. No materials will be returned.
