Construction activity in the higher-education sector is beginning to slowly rebound as the stock market improves and college and university endowments, along with gifts from alumni and other benefactors, grow.

Top 5 Projects

Ranked by higher-education construction starts 1/2013 through 8/2014

1. Perkins+Will
   - PROJECT: New York City College of Technology
   - New Academic Building
   - ARCHITECT: Perkins Eastman
   - LOCATION: Brooklyn, NY
   - $252 MILLION

2. ZGF Architects
   - PROJECT: University of Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences
   - ARCHITECTS: HOK, Pfohl-Bliss Architects
   - LOCATION: Buffalo, NY
   - $251 MILLION

3. Jacobs
   - PROJECT: University of Maryland Health Sciences Facility III
   - ARCHITECTS: HOK, Design Collective, Jacobs, Melville Thomas Architects
   - LOCATION: Baltimore
   - $218 MILLION

4. Ayers Saint Gross
   - PROJECT: Jackson Laboratory for Genomic Medicine
   - ARCHITECTS: Tsui/Rubus & Associates, Centerbrook
   - LOCATION: Farmington, CT
   - $191 MILLION

5. Goody Clancy
   - PROJECT: 20 Washington Road, Princeton University
   - ARCHITECT: KPMB Architects
   - LOCATION: Princeton, NJ
   - $155 MILLION